The Pastor's Pen

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Praying all is well with you and your loved ones as you read this edition of the Pastor's Pen electronically on our web site. Many of you, I know I am, may be wondering when will this madness end? Has God forgotten us or is God punishing us for the many years of disobedience that have plagued our society? That is an excellent question to which only God knows the answer. Our response should be simply to trust in the lord and lean not to our own individual understanding. God has provided individuals with wisdom to help us, to guide us through these uncharted waters. This is where faith and wisdom meet at the crossroads. They come together to see us through. God has promised that his will for us is to prosper not to hurt or harm us and I fully and whole heartily believe in the word of God.

We have just 1 month before we are officially joined with Mt Hope United Methodist Church to forge a new chapter in the history of Conant Avenue. We must work diligently to make sure this collaboration is successful in all ways possible. Radical hospitality is the key word. I know that you have this trait within you.

To answer the question, when will we return to our sanctuary, we will return soon. But there will be changes that have to be put into place before we can resume full usage of our building. Safe guards have been taken, and more safeguards are necessary, especially when we meet together again. In the meantime, I am open for suggestions. No idea is not worth investigating. Please forward ideas and suggestion to me via email at the church web site conantave@sbcglobal.net.

Blessings to you and yours.
Pastor Smith
